

As the Parent of young Children K-love is a blessing for them to hear. If K-love were to be displaced children would look to present and unacceptable role models in today's music. Our local youth groups listen to this station and get positive messages, without it they would fall prey to the current standard of music that uses sex and bad language to portray life. Not Good!!!!!! Thank you L Reisner proud listener of K-love and parent